

EDGEWATER REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY VACANCY

Applications are being accepted for (1) voluntary positions on the Edgewater Redevelopment Authority. The Authority consists of five (5) members appointed by the Mayor and ratified by City Council. The terms of office will expire December 16, 2021.

Qualifications are as follows:

- Resident of Edgewater or a non-resident individual which shall be limited to not more than two (1) Commissioners who may serve so long as each such individual is, and remains during all times (i) an owner of real property in the City; (ii) an owner or manager of a business within the City; or (iii) a duly authorized representative of such property or business owner. An individual shall be deemed to be an “owner of real property” or an “owner of a business” if the individual holds a majority ownership interest in a real property or business within the City, or has control of a corporate or other business entity that holds a majority ownership interest in the real property or business within the City. A “duly authorized representative” is an individual who has been and remains authorized in writing by an owner of real property or owner of a business to represent that owner as a commissioner of the Edgewater Redevelopment Authority.
- Not more than one (1) commissioner of the Edgewater Redevelopment Authority may be a member of the City Council of Edgewater. In the event that a member of the City Council is appointed as a commissioner of the Authority, acceptance or retention of such appointment is not deemed a forfeiture of his or her office, or incompatible therewith, and does not affect his or her tenure or compensation in any way. The term of office of a commissioner of the Authority who is a member of the City Council is not affected or curtailed by the expiration of his or her term of office as a member of the City Council; and
- No convictions for embezzlement, bribery, solicitation of bribery, perjury, subornation of perjury, or any offense involving fraud.

The Edgewater Redevelopment Authority exercises powers enumerated in Colorado Revised Statutes §31-25-101 et seq. Specifically, the Authority is responsible for curing blight conditions in the City of Edgewater pursuant to the Authority’s adopted Urban Renewal Plan.

Meetings: 4th Tuesday of each month or as needed.
Meeting Place: Edgewater City Hall, 2401 Sheridan Boulevard.

Applications are available at City Hall or can be found at www.edgewaterco.com. Applications may be submitted continuously.
